Refrain: I will bless you and praise you for ever

All your works praise you O Lord, and your faithful servants bless you. They tell of the glory of your kingdom and speak of your mighty power, R

To make known to all peoples your mighty acts and the glorious splendour of your kingdom. Your kingdom is an everlasting kingdom; your dominion endures throughout all ages. R

The Lord is sure in all his words and faithful in all his deeds. The Lord upholds all those who fall and lifts up all those who are bowed down. R

The eyes of all wait upon you, O Lord, and you give them their food in due season. You open wide your hand and fill all things living with plenty. R

The Lord is righteous in all his ways and loving in all his works. The Lord is near to those who call upon him, to all who call upon him faithfully. R

Second reading: Ephesians 3: 14-end (NT p. 190)

Gospel Acclamation: I am the light of the world, says the Lord. Whoever follows me will never walk in darkness but will have the light of life.

Gospel: John 6: 1-21 (NT p. 94)

Prayer after the sermon: When invited by Joan, we say together:

My life must be Christ's broken bread,

My love His outpoured wine.

That other Souls, refreshed and fed,

May share His life through mine.

Amen

Smarties (our Junior Church) is not meeting during the summer holidays.

All who normally receive communion in any church are welcome to receive today. If you would prefer to receive a blessing, please bow your head and keep your hands at your sides when you come, to signal your intention. Gluten free wafers are available; please come to the central altar & ask if you require one.

When receiving the wine, please do not dip your wafer into the wine (intinction). All advice suggests that drinking from the cup is a more hygienic method of sharing.

Communion Motet: The heavens are telling - Haydn

Voluntary: War March of the Priests - Mendelssohn

After the 9.30am service, you are warmly invited to join us for refreshments, served in the hall by Ian & Jackie Spencer, Margaret Vane, and Arthur Vane.

The Rt Revd Dr Helen-Ann Hartley, Bishop of Newcastle, is delighted to announce the appointment of The Revd Deborah Jayne Loughran to the post of Vicar of St George's. We greatly look forward to welcoming Debbie and family, and working with her over the coming years. Her installation will be on Monday 7th October at 7.30pm.

We welcome Sue Wilson as our president this morning.

Afternoon tea with the Friends of St George's: last one today, 2-4pm. As we have reached the final one, Pimms will be served regardless of the weather! The cost per person is £5 which will all be used to keep the wonderful building of St George's in pristine condition. It is our heritage.

The Parish Office will be closed on Monday 29th July.

Parish Walk: Saturday 10th August. Seaburn, Roker beach & the mouth of the River Wear. It is a flat walk about 4.5 miles. Meet at Ilford Road Metro platform 1 for the 9.33am green line train to Seaburn (or join the Metro elsewhere).

Return from St. Peter's metro stop. There are cafes and toilets along Roker beach. There could be an opportunity to visit the National Glass Centre which is on the route. For more information contact Alison Mattinson via the office.

St George's Cycling Club: The next ride is on August 14th. Meet 09:30 outside the church hall for your opportunity to explore the backroads and wagonways of Newcastle. Coffee stop included. Main roads avoided.

Prayers for the Sick are restarting (when and where on the back page). All are welcome! Free parking is available for three cars, more if necessary.

Choir music at the 9.30 Eucharist: you may have noticed that we have been alternating musical settings of the Eucharist over the past few months. This is common practice in musical parishes like ours, and we are beginning to establish a pattern of singing each setting once a month (Peacock, Thorne and L'Estrange). In addition to this, it's good for the choir to have the challenge of singing a fully choral mass setting when the resources allow, as we did last Sunday. If you'd like to know which music is being sung at which service, a monthly music list is published on the church website and will be made available at the back of church. Thank you for your ongoing interest and support!
