713 - Lord of all hopefulness

712 - Lord Jesus Christ

218 - Thine be the glory

Setting: St George's Mass - Peacock

First reading: Ecclesiastes 1: 2, 12-14; 2: 18-23 (p. 626) read by Stephen Watson

Psalm: 49: 1-12

(The psalm will be read during August)

Hear this, all you peoples; listen, all you that dwell in the world, you of low or high degree, both rich and poor together. My mouth shall speak of wisdom and my heart shall meditate on understanding. I will incline my ear to a parable; I will unfold my riddle with the lyre.

Why should I fear in evil days, when the malice of my foes surrounds me, such as trust in their goods and glory in the abundance of their riches? For no one can indeed ransom another or pay to God the price of deliverance. To ransom a soul is too costly; there is no price one could pay for it, so they might live for ever, and never see the grave.

For we see that the wise die also; with the foolish and the ignorant they perish and leave their riches to others. Their tomb is their home for ever, their dwelling through all generations, though they call their lands after their own names. Those who have honour, but lack understanding, are like beasts that perish.

Second reading: Colossians 3: 1-11 (NT p. 198) read by Jonathan Booth

Gospel Acclamation: printed in the order of service

Gospel: Luke 12: 13-21 (NT p. 71)

Intercessor: Wendy Jones

All who normally receive communion in any church are welcome to receive today. If you would prefer to receive a blessing, please bow your head and keep your hands at your sides when you come, to signal your intention. Gluten free wafers are available; please come to the central altar & ask if you require one.

When receiving the wine, please don't dip your wafer into the wine (intinction). All advice suggests that drinking from the cup is a more hygienic method of sharing.
