Setting: St George's Mass - Peacock

First reading: 1 Chronicles 29: 6-19 p. 397) read by Hazel Jones-Lee

Psalm: 111

(The choir will sing the response first. You're invited to join where indicated by R)

Response: The works of the Lord are great

Alleluia. I will give thanks to the Lord with my whole heart, in the company of the faithful and in the congregation. The works of the Lord are great, sought out by all who delight in them. R

His work is full of majesty and honour and his righteousness endures for ever. He appointed a memorial for his marvellous deeds; the Lord is gracious and full of compassion. R

He gave food to those who feared him; he is ever mindful of his covenant. He showed his people the power of his works in giving them the heritage of the nations. R

The works of his hands are truth and justice; all his commandments are sure. They stand fast for ever and ever; they are done in truth and equity. R

He sent redemption to his people; he commanded his covenant for ever; holy and awesome is his name. The fear of the Lord is the beginning of wisdom; a good understanding have those who live by it; his praise endures for ever. R

Second reading: Ephesians 2: 19-end (NT p. 190) read by Stephen Watson

Gospel: John 2: 13-22 (NT p. 89)

Intercessor: Graham Rutt

All who normally receive communion in any church are welcome to receive today. If you would prefer to receive a blessing, please bow your head and keep your hands at your sides when you come, to signal your intention. Gluten free wafers are available; please come to the central altar & ask if you require one.

When receiving the wine, please don't dip your wafer into the wine (intinction). All advice suggests that drinking from the cup is a more hygienic method of sharing.

Communion Motet: Expectans, expectavi - Wood

Voluntary: Introduction (Severn Suite) - Elgar
