Response: How lovely is your dwelling place

How lovely is your dwelling place O Lord of hosts! My soul has a desire and longing to enter the courts of the Lord; my heart and my flesh rejoice in the living God. R

The sparrow has found her a house, and the swallow a nest where she may lay her young: at your altars O Lord of hosts, my King and my God. R

Blessed are they who dwell in your house: they will always be praising you. Blessed are those whose strength is in you, in whose heart are the highways to Zion R

Who going through the barren valley find there a spring, and the early rains will clothe it with blessing. They will go from strength to strength and appear before God in Zion. R

Second reading: 2 Timothy 4: 6-8, 16-18 (NT p. 211) read by Jonathan Booth

Gospel: Luke 18: 9-14 (NT p. 78)

Intercessor: Stephen Dawes

All who normally receive communion in any church are welcome to receive today. If you would prefer to receive a blessing, please bow your head and keep your hands at your sides when you come, to signal your intention. Gluten free wafers are available; please come to the central altar & ask if you require one.

When receiving the wine, please don't dip your wafer into the wine (intinction). All advice suggests that drinking from the cup is a more hygienic method of sharing.

Communion Motet: Lord, for thy tender mercy's sake - Farrant
